

Tegan Gargett

DANCE TEACHER

Tegan Gargett has years of experience as a dancer and singer with her passion being for musical theatre. A competitive dancer since the age of 5, Tegan has completed major dance examinations in the fields of ballet, tap and jazz and has a particular love for tap dancing.

Through her singing she has had the pleasure of being both a solo vocalist and a choral member for many major events and productions both in Rockhampton and also in her home town of Mackay.

Her love of music theatre lead Tegan to the stage from an early age with her first being cast in a local musical theatre production at the age of 13. Since then her musical credits have included 42nd street, Fame, Jesus Christ Superstar, Legally Blonde, Evita, Anything Goes, Mary Poppins, The Sound of music and 9 to 5 the musical.

Tegan hopes to inspire and encourage future generations to have a love for the stage and to embrace the unique, amazing and special talents that each and every one of us possess.
